Annual White Sale==-January Clearing Sale

HE ad writer is in a dilemma. A multiplicity of Special Sales begin to-morrow. Every department is affected, and every available inch of space is devoted to the display an sale of merchandise "under price." Each Department Manager insists that he will crowd the store if the ad writer will only impress upon the public what great values he is given ing. Investigations prove their claims to be founded on facts. Here lies the predicament. The character of all the offerings merit special distinction, limited space compels the publishing of only the meager details, and in fact the elimination of some departments entirely.

You will find in this section of the paper a full-page announcement from the Cloak Department. Monday will assuredly be a Banner Bargain Day at Grand-Leader.
